

"Seasonal" Specialty 22oz. Brands From HALE'S ALES BREWERY

PIKOP ANDROPOV'S RUSHIN' IMPERIAL STOUT

It's finally been released and these taxi guys can't wait to get their hands on some! Big and bold, this black beauty has all the "stuff" to earn the title Imperial. Six different types of malt, a complex hop profile (featuring Hersbrucker and Mount Hoods), finished with American Oak chips, and finally bottle aged for 5 months, this baby is ready to hit the road. Of course, with an ABV of 7.5%, we recommend that you enjoy it from your favorite armchair!

AFTERMATH IMPERIAL I.P.A.

This limited release India Pale Ale is full, rich, and complex. It has a big malt body, big flavors, and a big hop profile. It's BIG!! The hop influences come into play throughout the the experience of this beer, and they are three of Yakima Valley's finest: Columbus, Cascade, and Centennials. It boasts an Original Gravity of 1.084, resulting in a robust ABV of 8+%. The Hale's brew crew's critique of this beer sort of says it all: "It will set you free".
