From Hale's Ales:
"Brewer's Choice"

A series of small batch specialty beers.

The brewer's at Hale's have begun a program of cooking up small batch specialty ales periodically through the year. These limited release brews will be featured at select alehouses and retail outlets throughout Western Washington. These special brews will be available on draft and in 22 oz. bottles.

The goal of this "Brewer's Choice" series is to put a little "micro" back in the microbrewery business by creating unique, one-of-a-kind specialty beers for the steadfast craft beer fan. Brewing these beers will be fun for us, and we hope, a pleasure for you. So look for a Hale's "Brewer's Choice" ale on tap at your favorite local watering hole and get it while you can!

Traditionally brewed in Cologne, Germany, but why let them have all the fun?!? Now brewed right here in the Northwest at Hale's Ales, this lighter style ale is cold lagered until it is completely refreshing. The beer is golden colored, with a crisp taste accented by fruity esters.
