

People are talking about

HALE'S MONGOOSE IPA

"...a double barrel, knock your socks off brew. Absurdly well-balanced with aggressive doses of bittering and aromatic hops, this baby just may be Seattle's best IPA!"

- Whole Foods Markets, Seattle

"...from one of the Northwest's pioneer microbreweries...a pronounced, citrus-floral hop flavor and aroma from dry hopping with Amarillo's and Chinook hops."

- Rick Bonino, Spokesman Review

"...Properly bitter for a Pacific Northwest I.P.A., the dry hopping is a nice touch and plays well in the glass. This is an eminently refreshing and enjoyable brew."

- Fred Eckhardt, All About Beer Magazine

"...quite tasty and very drinkable. Hopheads should pounce, especially with quesadillas or tacos."

- Garrett Oliver, All About Beer Magazine

Ingredients: Pale Malted barley, Crystal malt, Munich malt, Wheat malt, Chinook and Amarillo Hops, yeast and water. Original Gravity: 1.060

4301 Leary Way NW, Seattle, WA 98107

206/706-1544 fax 206/706-1572